

Our mission is to maintain gardens that are enjoyable, inspirational and used to educate people about gardening and its health and environmental benefits.

2024 Educational Classes & Seasonal Features

Educational Class Schedule

All classes are held on the Bridge from 10 – 11 am unless otherwise specified. Classes are open to the public. Workshops will have limited attendance with a fee of $15 paid in advance and preregistration is required (fees are nonrefundable). More information will be available in our monthly newsletters, our Facebook page, or email education@lakelurefloweringbridge.org.

Saturday, May 18	Container Gardening with Edibles
Tuesday, July 23	Go Native with Native Plants
Tuesday, September 24	Making Fall Wreaths from Dried and Foraged Materials (Workshop)
Tuesday, October 1	Landscape Design Basics
Saturday, October 26	TLC for Trees
Tuesday, November 19	The Relationship Between Honeybees and Flowers
Saturday, December 7	Making a Live Holiday Evergreen Wreath (Workshop)

Special Educational Events

Saturday, April 20	Earth Day Celebration, with children's activities from 10 am – 1 pm
Saturday, June 22	Pollinator Week Celebration, with children's activities from 10 am – 1 pm

Seasonal Features

March 5 – April 30	Birds of a Feather
June 4 – September 10	Secret Trails
October 15 – November 5	Pumpkin Pirate Adventures
November 19 – January 7	Christmas Around the World
November 15 – February 25	Garden Lights

3070 Memorial Hwy., Lake Lure, NC 28746
Open 7 days a week & always free
Visit our website at www.llfb.org
Email us at info@lakelurefloweringbridge.org

Lake Lure Flowering Bridge | P.O. Box 125, Lake Lure, NC 28746

Unsubscribe mlsomerville@verizon.net

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by chairman@lakelurefloweringbridge.org powered by

Try email marketing for free today!